

AG STRANGE REVIEWS COMPLAINTS OF VIOLATIONS OF ALABAMA GUN LAWS

(MONTGOMERY) - Attorney General Luther Strange today released public statements about formal complaints received by his office concerning possible unlawful prohibitions of firearms in Daleville, Vestavia Hills and Decatur. After reviewing and investigating each complaint, the Attorney General's Office worked with the public entity to achieve compliance with state law.

The results of the Attorney General's investigations are summarized below, along with links to his determinations.

City of Daleville

The Attorney General's Office reviewed a complaint that the Daleville Cultural and Convention Center failed to comply with Alabama law because it prohibited firearms. After the Attorney General communicated with the city attorney, the City of Daleville removed the signs prohibiting weapons from the building. Because the signs were removed, the Attorney General determined that no further action is required.

City of Vestavia Hills

The Attorney General's Office reviewed a complaint that the City of Vestavia Hills failed to comply with Alabama law because it prohibited firearms at Wald Park, Liberty Park Sports Complex, Little Shades Creek Park, Vestavia Hills Athletic Complex Cahaba Heights, Byrd Park and Shallowford Park. After the Attorney General communicated with the city attorney, signs prohibiting firearms were removed. Because the signs are removed, the Attorney General has determined that no further action is required.

Decatur Utilities

The Attorney General's Office reviewed a complaint that Decatur Utilities failed to comply with Alabama law because it prohibited firearms. After the Attorney General communicated with Decatur Utilities, it removed the signs from the temporary facility while the permanent facility is being renovated. Because the signs are removed, the Attorney General has determined that no further action is required. No determination was made about whether the signs previously posted at the temporary facility were lawful or whether such signs may be posted at the permanent facility.
